Companies (Winding-Up) Rules 2020

(i) Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) is soon going to announce the web-based SPICe Plus form that will be replaced by SPICe form. The step is taken in par with Ease of Doing Business(EODB) initiatives taken by the government.

(ii) SPICe+ is an inclusive online form that gives multiple facilities like name reservation, mandatory issue of PAN, incorporation, DIN allotment, TAN, EPFO, ESIC, Profession Tax (Maharashtra) and Opening of Bank Account.

The form also gives allotment of GSTIN wherever as and when applied by the stakeholder. After the formation of SPICe+ form, RUN will be used only to change the name of existing companies.

(iii) Upon formation, application for fresh name reservations (new companies and new incorporations) shall be done through SPICe+ only.

(iv) However, incorporation of companies for names reserved through the existing RUN service shall continue to be filed in the existing SPICe e-form along with related linked forms as applicable and if marked under resubmission shall be resubmitted in SPICe e-form.

(v) Re-submission has to be done for SPICe forms furnished before the date of SPICe+ web form deployment. Webform and other applicable forms shall be filed in the SPICe e-form.

Re-Submission Options for name reservation Are Temporarily Unavailable on RUN for next 15 days from 1st Feb 2020.

Therefore, stakeholders are requested to either wait for the formation of SPICe+ AND THEN APPLY or carefully submit any application in existing RUN web service for name reservation. Applications processed on RUN web services might get approved or rejected based on the verification done by the CRC officer
