GDP Data for FY 2024-25 04th Quarter (January to March 2025)

In the fourth quarter of FY 2024-25, India's Real GDP (adjusted for constant prices) is projected to reach ₹51.35 lakh crore, which represents a notable 7.4% increase from ₹47.82 lakh crore in the same period of FY 2023-24. On the other hand, the Nominal GDP (based on current prices) is set to rise by 10.8%, climbing to ₹88.18 lakh crore compared to ₹79.61 lakh crore during the prior year's quarter.

For the entire financial year of 2024-25, Real GDP is anticipated to hit ₹187.97 lakh crore, indicating a 6.5% growth from the First Revised Estimates (FRE) of ₹176.51 lakh crore for FY 2023-24. Furthermore, the Nominal GDP for FY 2024-25 is expected to reach ₹330.68 lakh crore, reflecting a 9.8% increase from last year's figure of ₹301.23 lakh crore. Read More

GDP Data for FY 2024-25 03rd Quarter (October to December 2024)

India's economy grew by 6.2% in the third quarter of the current fiscal year, covering the period from October to December 2024. This marks a slowdown compared to the 9.5% growth recorded in the same quarter of the previous year. The decline in growth can be attributed to various economic factors, including changes in trade, hotels, transport, communication, the broadcasting sector, and other utility services etc. Read Press Release

GDP Data for FY 2024-25 02nd Quarter (July to September 2024)

Economic growth has been reduced to 5.4% in July-September 2024 compared to 8.1 pc in the year-ago quarter. In the April-June quarter (Q1), the economy expanded at 6.7% stating the slowest speed in 5 quarters. In governmental expenditure, the government has indeed had a reduction in the general elections. Till now, the government has claimed that the rising momentum is robust and a 6.5-7 per cent growth estimate for the full fiscal year is realistic. Read Press Note

GDP Data for FY 2024-25 01st Quarter (April to June 2024)

The gross domestic product (GDP) of India for the April-June quarter of fiscal 2024-25 (Q1FY25) stands at a 15-month low of 6.7 per cent compared to 8.2 per cent in the year-ago period over soft government spending and low consumer spending. The data emerged from the National Statistical Office (NSO) on Friday, August 30, the agriculture sector recorded a two per cent growth, down from 3.7 per cent in the June quarter. Read Press Note